NYU ABU DHABI FAQ's

1. What makes your university unique?

NYU Abu Dhabi is the first and only fully equipped liberal arts and research university in the UAE. The university offers the American curriculum in accordance with New York University standards. The campus has students from over 120 nationalities (including several from Indonesia) making it a truly diverse and global environment. Students are encouraged to learn through discussion/research based learning.

2. What are your most popular programs of study (feel free to provide links)?

We have 22 different Bachelor's degrees. All of our programs are competitive and recognized around the world.

3. Do you require TOEFL or IELTS scores?

No.

4. What is your average/minimum GPA?

Please see the attached student profile.

5. What is the minimum AP classes required?

We do not have a minimum. However, admission to NYUAD is very competitive (about 3.5%), so students must demonstrate academic excellence in their application. For more information, please see our admissions requirements: <https://nyuad.nyu.edu/en/admissions/undergraduate.html>

6. Do you give university credit for AP classes, SAT scores, CLEP scores, etc?

No, we do not award credit for these courses because of the specialized nature of the NYUAD curriculum.

7. What is the average class size?

Our student to faculty ratio is 4:1. Thus, our classes are all quite small. The largest class size is about 25-30 students. However, the average size is about 10-15. This is consistent across majors.

8. What is the yearly cost for international students?

We offer generous need-based financial aid for all students regardless of citizenship. Please see more information about the process here: <https://nyuad.nyu.edu/en/admissions/undergraduate/financial-support.html>

9. Do you offer international students scholarships?

Please see question #8.

10. HOW CAN I APPLY TO THIS UNIVERSITY? When is the application available?

Students will use the Common Application to apply to NYU Abu Dhabi. The application is currently open for students wishing to enter university in Fall 2019. Early Decision 1 is November 1 and Regular Decision is January 1.
